

Linked Entries in Directory

for

DAWSUN Sewing Hub and Free Clothing Exchange Hub – Providing ethnic minority women community sewing skills, language practice, and pathways to employment.

This document will be updated twice-yearly as new entries are added to the Directory.

This is the 1st Version of this document (prepared April 4th, 2026).

Title	DAWSUN Sewing Hub and Free Clothing Exchange Hub – Providing ethnic minority women community sewing skills, language practice, and pathways to employment.
Lead Organisation	Disapora African Women’s Support Network (DAWSUN).
Category	Interesting.
Poverty Impact	Reduction., Mitigation.
Entries by Same Organisation
No.
Entries on Same Type of Project
Pollokshaws Community Hub and Garden - empowering residents through practical support, skills and wellbeing. Available at: https://www.gcu.ac.uk/aboutgcu/academicschools/gsbs/research/spiru/directory/case-studies/pollokshaws-community-hub-and-garden
Entries from Same Location
NHSGGC Secondary Care Emergency Maternity Fund (Greater Glasgow and Clyde) – identifying maternity service users in socioeconomic crisis and providing immediate financial and material help. Available at: https://www.gcu.ac.uk/aboutgcu/academicschools/gsbs/research/spiru/directory/case-studies/nhsggc-secondary-care-emergency-maternity-fund

Linked Entries in Directory

for

DAWSUN Sewing Hub and Free Clothing Exchange Hub – Providing ethnic minority women community sewing skills, language practice, and pathways to employment.

Glasgow SE Foodbank - emergency food and financial inclusion support for people in crisis. Available at:

<https://www.gcu.ac.uk/aboutgcu/academicschools/gsbs/research/spiru/directory/case-studies/glasgow-se-foodbank>

The Milton Food Hub. A North Glasgow food initiative and community garden. Available at:

<https://www.gcu.ac.uk/aboutgcu/academicschools/gsbs/research/spiru/directory/case-studies/the-milton-food-hub.-a-north-glasgow-food-initiative-and-community-garden>

Entries Serving Same Population Group

Employability and Adult Learning – targeted skills and learning opportunities for adults from ethnic minority and disadvantaged communities in Glasgow. Available at:

<https://www.gcu.ac.uk/aboutgcu/academicschools/gsbs/research/spiru/directory/case-studies/017-employability-and-adult-learning>