

Linked Entries in Directory

for

Employability as a Routine Enquiry for Health Visitors- supporting new parents with sustainable pathways to training and employment opportunities.

This document will be updated twice-yearly as new entries are added to the Directory.

This is the 1st Version of this document (prepared October, 2026).

Title	Employability as a Routine Enquiry for Health Visitors- supporting new parents with sustainable pathways to training and employment opportunities.
Lead Organisation	NHS Lanarkshire.
Category	Promising. Early signs of impact.
Poverty Impact	Enabling Reduction.
Entries by Same Organisation
• Paths Away From Poverty - connecting families to benefits, advice and community services: Paths Away From Poverty - connecting families to benefits, advice and community services. Glasgow Caledonian University Scotland, UK • Lived Experience Informed Letter for Benefit Entitlement (NHS Ayrshire and Arran) - producing user-friendly formal communication to increase loss of earnings repayment uptake: Lived Experience Informed Letter for Benefit Entitlement Glasgow Caledonian University Scotland, UK
Entries on Same Type of Project
No
Entries from Same Location
• We Asked, You Said, We Did (North Lanarkshire) - campaigning and advocating for cost-of-living support for unpaid carers: North Lanarkshire Carers Together Glasgow Caledonian University Scotland, UK • Home Start Glasgow North and North Lanarkshire (HSGNNL) - community network strengthening families and reducing early childhood hardship: Home Start Glasgow North

Linked Entries in Directory

for

Employability as a Routine Enquiry for Health Visitors- supporting new parents with sustainable pathways to training and employment opportunities.

and North Lanarkshire (HSGNNL) - community network strengthening families and reducing early childhood hardship. | Glasgow Caledonian University | Scotland, UK

- Ask Three Questions (North Lanarkshire) - information on young people's perspectives on poverty to improve outreach and services: Ask Three Questions (North Lanarkshire) - information on young people's perspectives on poverty to improve outreach and services. | Glasgow Caledonian University | Scotland, UK
- Pathways - a person centred approach to sustainable employment and confidence: Pathways - a person centered approach to sustainable employment and confidence. | Glasgow Caledonian University | Scotland, UK
- Advanced Clothing Solutions (ACS) Training and Development Programme - employee upskilling through inhouse accredited education: Advanced Clothing Solutions (ACS) Training and Development Programme - employee upskilling through inhouse accredited education. | Glasgow Caledonian University | Scotland, UK

Entries Serving Same Population Group

Not applicable – this project is targeted at a local population, rather than a specific demographic group