2. EDUCATIONAL AIMS OF PROGRAMME
This programme prepares students to enter the dynamic, fast-paced, global business environment, with a comprehensive understanding of the challenges faced by managers as well as insight into the strategies, policies and practices key to managing these challenges. The programme modules will also take a global perspective as their primary starting point and align to QAA Benchmark Statements as a reference point. In particular, the purpose of the programme aligns to Section 2.1 QAA Benchmark Statement by advancing the study of organisations; preparing students for a career in business; enhancing the ability of students to apply knowledge and understanding of business in an international context; building transferable skills; and developing lifelong learning skills. This programme aims to equip students with the leadership and interpersonal skills required for a successful career in international business management. Central to the programme is the personal and professional development of students with an emphasis on managing self and others, responsible leadership, cross-cultural awareness and global citizenship. The study of the geopolitical, societal, economic and financial business environment contributes to understanding of contemporary and emerging issues in global business strategy, organisational resilience and ethical business practices. The study of the geopolitical, societal, economic and financial business environment contributes to understanding of contemporary and emerging issues in global business strategy, digital marketing and branding. Also critical to the study of international business management is insight into the policies and techniques applicable to managing people and processes to deliver sustainable business performance. This Masters degree will enhance student employability through participation in a wide-range of teaching and learning experiences including integrative case studies, group projects and presentations, company visits and industry speakers. The primary aim of this programme is to provide a broad, analytical and integrative study of international business and management. The primary aim of the programme is to provide a critical understanding and knowledge of fundamental areas of global business and management from an international perspective by:

- enabling students to critically evaluate appropriate models and techniques for diverse competitive environments in the global economy;
- providing practical insights into applicable techniques and methods for international business management including managing diversity, strategy, risk and finance;
- enabling students to identify, analyse, and adapt to different cultural environments and to become effective global citizens;
- facilitating students to develop an entrepreneurial mindset within an ethos of ethical business practice, sustainability and management leadership responsibility.

Programme Assessment Strategy:

The assessment methods used in the programme are designed to provide the knowledge and understanding required of the aims of the programme and to develop the array of intellectual, professional and transferable skills demanded of the programme. As such, a balance of coursework assessments have been created to ensure academic rigour in relation to knowledge and intellectual ability as well as the development of professional and transferable skills. Coursework ranges from 2000–3000-word essays/reports (e.g. Individual Global Market Opportunity Analysis (GMOA) report and a Sustainability Plan), group presentation, case study analysis and financial spreadsheet exercises and a 12000-word project. Standard university assessment regulations apply to this programme.

Programme Feedback Strategy:

Module teaching teams ensure that specific student feedback is available on all forms of assessed work within appropriate timescales (and GCU guidelines) – normally 3 working weeks for assessments. Formal feedback on written assessments is normally provided online via GradeMark, or Blackboard.

Curriculum Map

The curriculum map links the modules listed in the Programme Structure to the Learning Outcomes

This map provides both a design aid to help academic staff identify where the programme outcomes are being developed and assessed within the course. It also provides a checklist for quality assurance purposes and could be used in approval, accreditation and external examining processes. This also helps students monitor their own learning, and their personal and professional development as the course progresses.
