

Privacy Notice – College Connect (GCU Outreach)

Background

This Privacy Notice is designed to explain how and why information about individuals in the following categories is used and managed:

- College Connect, partner colleges and students articulating to GCU

All of the personal information will be treated in accordance with the terms of the Data Protection Act 2018 and the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR). This means that confidentiality will be respected and that appropriate security measures will be taken to prevent unauthorised disclosure. This notice is intended to meet the transparency requirement of the legislation and to ensure that all individuals in the categories above know how their data will be processed.

Using your personal information

Who will process my information?

Under Data Protection law the University is the “data controller”. This means that the University is responsible for how it uses and processes your information and complying with requests relating to your personal data.

Why do we collect and use your personal information?

The College Connect team deliver recruitment and transition support to articulating students from partner colleges. The processing and use of personal information is required in order to monitor and evaluate activities undertaken and to support college students articulating to GCU.

Keeping information updated

The University strives to ensure that all personal information is accurate and up to date.

College Connect participants should inform College Connect of any changes to information so that data can be kept up to date by contacting collegeconnect@gcu.ac.uk

How long is the information kept?

The University will retain your information only for as long as necessary for the purposes described.

Further information is available in the University Records Retention Schedules:

<https://www.gcu.ac.uk/recordsmgmt/>

Where do we obtain information from?

Information is collected via UCAS/GCU for admissions purposes then passed to the College Connect team in order to support articulating college students.

What information is being collected and used?

Data will consist of the information provided by the “data subject” or a company acting on behalf of the University. Information may be in hard copy or electronic format. This includes:

- Personal details, contact information, qualifications, school/college information etc.

Special category personal information is also processed where it is necessary and lawful for us to do so. In most cases you have the option whether to provide this information or not. This refers to data revealing:

- Racial or ethnic origin
- Political opinion
- Religious or philosophical beliefs
- Trade Union membership
- Physical or mental health
- Sex life or sexual orientation

Data relating to criminal convictions and offences is also subject to additional protection.

Who is the information shared with?

Your information will be shared internally only with those individuals who require it in the course of their duties.

The University may be required to share your personal information with external organisations. This may happen due to a statutory or legal obligation.

How is the information kept securely?

Information is kept securely on University equipment in line with University Information Security and Data Protection Policies. Access is restricted to only those staff or authorised agents who require it and on a “need to know” basis.

Will the information be used for automated decision-making?

No.

Is the information transferred outside the European Union?

No.

Your rights

You have the right to:

- Find out what personal data we process about you and to request a copy of the data
- Ask us to correct inaccurate or incomplete data
- Withdraw consent to process your personal data, if you were asked for and provided consent

If you think we are acting unfairly or unlawfully you can:

- Object to the way we are using your data
- Complain to the UK Information Commissioner’s Office

Under certain conditions you also have the right to ask us to:

- Restrict the use of your data
- Erase your information or tell us to stop using it to make decisions about you
- Provide you with a portable electronic copy of data you’ve given us

Please contact us if you wish to exercise/enquire about any of these rights.
